

BNL Construction Manager

As the head of the Construction department in the Benelux, you will be responsible for the management of BNL PV plant construction and the activities of all the Ikaros personnel in that department : Project Managers, Site Managers and Construction Engineers. Moreover, you will be implementing the contracts and assure that the customer's requirements and expectations are fully met.

You will be based in Schoten, Belgium and will regularly travel to the local construction sites. You will be reporting to the Operations Director.

Profile

- Degree in electrical engineering
- Highly experienced in construction activities
- Fluent in Dutch, French and English
- People manager and coach
- Customer orientation
- Great attention to level of detail
- Excellent procedural skills